

Aloha,

Please continue the restriction on noise pollution in our National Parks and scenic wildlife areas. Last month while hiking through Haleakala, helicopter noise occasionally echoed through the crater even with todays limits. One of the beautiful things about these wilderness areas is enjoying the peace of silence and sounds of nature. I hope you will be successful in protecting the beauty and serenity of these areas that are treasures for all of us.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Marchello